Upon approval, the Cadet office will send the council a certificate of recognition and a patch for his uniform. The council is to award these to the boy at a council assembly. You are to arrange for appropriate recognition in the cadet's church, whether through a bulletin announcement, church newsletter, or special ceremony.

The Cadet Corps will feature the cadet's achievements in a Cadet Quest article. You may choose to contact your local newspaper to send them a news release.

The Cadet Corps will send a plaque of recognition to the cadet, along with his personal copy of the Quest article with his story in it. You may specify to have the Corps send you a plaque for presentation at a church, club, or council event.
